(-) A penalty stroke is a stroke added to the score of a side under certain rules, and does not affect the rotation of play. (0) The honor is the privilege of playing first from a teeing-ground. (p) A player has addressed the ball when he has taken up his position and grounded his club, or if in a hazard, when he has taken up his position preparatory to striking the ball. (q) The reckoning of strokes is kept by the terms the odd, two more, three more, etc., and one off three, one oft two, the like. The reckoning of holes is kept by the terms so many holes up, or all even, and so many to play. 2. A match begins by each side playing a ball from the first teeing-ground. The player who shall play first on each side shall be named by his own side. The option of taking the honor at the first teeing-ground shall be decided, if necessary by lot. A ball played from in front of, or outside of, or more than two club lengths behind the marks indicating the teeing-ground, or played by a player when his opponent should have had the honour, may be at once recalled by the opposite side, and may be re-teed without penalty. The side...
