The intention some time ago was that this meeting should be held at Lookout Mountain, but learning that ample accommodations could not there be obtained, a change of place was found to be necessary. The indications are that the attendance will be very large. It is, however, a little unfortunate, perhaps, that this meeting occurs but a week before the annual meeting of the American Dental Association at Saratoga, N. Y. , and also the meeting of three other bodies at the same time and place, at each of which many of the members of the Southern Association ought to be present, and in which many of them are greatly interested. It may be, however, that the plan is, on the part of many, to go direct from Asheville to Saratoga. We hope this may be the case. The time for holding the Southern Association meetings will, undoubtedly prevent many of the profession from the more northern portions of our country from attending the southern meetings, which is a matter of regret, and we would suggest that all of the southern brethren go to Saratoga, and thus overcome this unfortunate circumstance as far as possible. The States of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas will hold an Inter-State Dental Meeting at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, June 23 to 26, 1896, inclusive. The Executive Committee having the matter in charge have made extensive preparations and very complete arrangements for this joint meeting....
